

La Baule Opens the FEI Samsung SuperLeague

After the mid-winter break, it is at LA BAULE where the 6th season of the FEI (International Equestrian Federation) Samsung SuperLeague will begin once again. The international show jumping circuit, organized according to a national team format, showcases the very top international riders.

The first stop on this 8-event outdoor circuit will take place at La Baule, on the west coast of France in the region of the "Pays de Loire", from May 8-11, 2008.

The proof that the FEI Samsung SuperLeague is the top outdoor tour on the international equestrian show jumping calendar is that only 8 nations qualify based on their previous year's results. The countries which have qualified for 2008 are Belgium, Germany, Ireland, Great Britain, the Netherlands, Sweden, Switzerland and the U.S.A. (As the first stop of the circuit is in France, the French team is allocated a wild card to compete at La Baule).

The eight qualified teams will compete among themselves in the following events :

La Baule, France : May 8-11 ; Rome, Italy : May 22-25 ; St. Gallen, Switzerland : May 29 - June 1 ; Rotterdam, the Netherlands : 18-22 June ; Aachen, Germany : July 1-6 ; Hickstead, England : July 24-27 ; Dublin, Ireland : August 6-10 ; Barcelona, Spain (the Final) : September 18-21.

" SAVE THE DATE " !

for the Official French International Show Jumping event from La Baule : May 8-11, 2008.

The FEI Samsung Super League event will be held at the François André Stadium in La Baule on Friday, May 9th at about 2:30 pm.
