It is a tradition in La Baule. The chefs d'équipe of the nations involved in this mythical event proudly brandish the flag of their country for a parade that ignites the stands of the stadium. Behind them, four pairs made up of the greatest riders associated with some of the best performing mounts on the showjumping planet. Pairs ready to fight for their country and team-mates. Finally, in the always crowded stands, several thousands of spectators pay tribute to the tenors of a competition without equivalent in France. This is what the nations Cup is.
