Jumping International de La Baule - Officiel de France from June 11th to 14th, 2026

Jumping International de la Baule – Officiel de France invites the public to the François-André stadium from 11 to 14 June 2026. For four days, the world's best horses and riders will gather in La Baule for the Rolex Series, renowned for its unique atmosphere and deep attachment to the history of equestrian sports.

Every year, the champions praise the incomparable atmosphere in La Baule, carried by an audience considered one of the most passionate on the circuit. Combining tradition and modernity, the competition is a highlight of the international season.

True to its identity, the event remains free and open to all. Around the famous grass track of the François-André stadium, enthusiastic spectators, families and curious onlookers gather to share a special moment. Everyone comes to experience an exceptional sporting spectacle. Each course is a real experience, with tension mounting as the rider-horse pairs take off, the stands quivering and holding their breath at the decisive moments, then exploding with enthusiasm at the final passage.

It is an emotion that transcends borders and celebrates the achievements of these champions. It is this unique communion between riders, horses and spectators that makes La Baule an unmissable, accessible and deeply human event.
