25th JUNE 2026

The Jumping International de La Baule – Officiel de France at the heart of the FAULTLESS series

The documentary series FAULTLESS*, available since June 23, 2026 on The Roku Channel in the United States and Canada, shines a spotlight on the unique bond between horse and rider, revealing the discipline, resilience, and trust required to compete at the highest level of show jumping.

Narrated by Walton Goggins and produced in partnership with Rolex, the six episode series takes viewers behind the scenes of the biggest events of the 2025 season, including the prestigious Rolex Grand Slam of Show Jumping. Featuring 14 of the world's top riders, including Rolex testimonees Richard Vogel, Steve Guerdat, Martin Fuchs, and Sophie Hinnners, this captivating series travels the globe through competitions held in France, Germany, the Netherlands, Switzerland, England, Ireland, the United States, and Canada.

The Jumping International de La Baule – Officiel de France is one of the featured events in episode 2 of the series. It provides an opportunity to showcase the competition's many strengths: its exceptional setting, the enthusiasm of its spectators, and an exclusive behind-the-scenes look at elite sport through the journey of Steve Guerdat.

"Show jumping is decided in a matter of seconds, but what audiences rarely see are the years of preparation, trust, and sacrifice behind every round," said Ben Asselin, Executive Producer at Brighter Frame Productions. "With FAULTLESS, we wanted to bring viewers closer to the world of equestrian sport—the pressure, the partnerships, and the extraordinary athletes, both human and equine, who define the sport at its highest level."
